£20,000 will help towards placing the names of the fallen from Chorley on the town's Cenotaph

SPONSORED WALK

In the First World War, the Chorley Pals were one quarter of the famous Accrington Pals Battalion that was decimated on the Somme battlefield on the 1st July 1916. As part of the fundraising for the CHORLEY REMEMBERS project, I am doing a sponsored walk along the Leeds-Liverpool Canal from Chorley to Accrington on Sunday, 14th August. The walk will start at the Pals Memorial in Chorley and end on the Accrington boundary, 15 miles away.

All monies raised will go towards the appeal fund.

The project aims to raise £20,000 over the next 12 months and I ask you for your support towards this worthy cause.... I will remember them - will you?
